BEECHER'S CHURCH. THE RESULTS OF POPULARITY-PEWS AT A PREMIUM.

The annual sale of pews at Plymouth Church took place on the spot last evening. The house was filled with bright faces and a small storm of whispers. Pretty girls in dainty attire made picturesque little oases of color in a gloom of black coats. Various celebrities were present; it was even rumored that Mrs. Stowe was in a central seat. Mr. Beecher stood before the pulpit, talking in his jolly way with the grave and reverend seignears of his congregation. Somebody behind, impatient for the sale to begin, coughed without remorse, whereapon the pastor gayly commanded those boys to be turned out. "Those boys" observed that he'd better come and do it himself, and the muscular Christian replied, with a significant tap upon his arm, "If I can't do

Moses Beach, Trustees, and Mr. Freeman, President of the Board, were on the platform.

Mr. Beecher opened the business with a few remarks of a practically technical nature. The angioneer ananounced that he wished them all a Happy New Year, and straightway began the profitable branch of the Gospel. The first pew, No. 90, was sold to Mr. Sage at a premium of $565, making, with the regular price, a total of $615; the next to Henry C. Bowen at $750 premium; total, $490. The sales of the next best pews were, in total, $455, $415, $430, $420, $420, $420, $445, $445, $420. Moses Beach and A. Claffin paid each a premium of $300; Deputy Controller Stone and J. T. Howard, $305. The pew sold to Mr. Sage brought last year only $425. The first few bids were not so large as last year, but they maintained the high average longer. One of the worst scats in the gallery, No. 21, price $25, was knocked down to a gentleman for $245 premium. A laugh followed this strange expression of a desire to get rid of filthy lucre. A general preference for chairs was manifested, and the auctioneer observed that they ought to keep good order, considering the number of chairmen there. The sale was kept up to a late hour, and the utmost good humor prevailed throughout.

ITS CAUSE AND EXTENT-STATEMENTS FROM BOTH SIDES—MEETING OF THE OPERATORS TESTERDAY—ANOTHER MEETING TO BE HELD

The strike of the operators in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Company has become general, although if the statements telegraphed from the agent at San Francisco to the Company here are true, there is little real ground for the strike. The version of the difficulty there, as given by the Company's agent in a private dispatch, is that two men were discharged by "trying to create dissatisfaction and make mischief." The officials here say that "no reduction of salaries at San Francisco had been either made or contemplated, and none had been ordered or suggested at headquarters here, consequently none had been attempted at San Francisco. The whole story appears to have sprung from the malice of two employés at San Francisee, who had been dismissed because their services were no longer required. The pretext of an attempt to reduce their compensation is utterly without foundation."

On the other hand, the operators who were dismissed had no opportunity as alleged of informing the operators here as to the real cause of the difficulty, and the inform ation upon which they have acted came from operators and a pon which they have acced came from operators on duty at San Francisco and Sacramento to their brother sperators at Chicago and Cincinnati, which information culminated in a strike at those two offices on the day before yesterday. Information of the strike having been telegraphed to this city, a meeting was held at the Telegraphere Union Protective Association, and the following resolutions were manimously adopted:

The night force of operators learning the state of affairs promptly Joined the strikers, and the 14 operators on duty last night made but little progress with the accumulated mass of dispatches. Everything was quiet, and of course no difficulty is apprehended. The mon are firm in their demands and sanguing of success. The following dispatches were received by the Associated Press:

Washindron, Jan. 4.—The telegraph operators of the Western Union Offices in this city, I'm number, struck this afternoon at 4 o'cloca, in concert with other operators of the country, owing to the San Francisco difficulty.

Fittersurage, Pa., Jan. 4.—The telegraph operators of the Western Union office in this city left their instruments at $9$ of cleek this morning. The officers of the Company have secured operators enough to do the business as somal in the main office.

Bostow, Jan. 4.—The operators in the Western Union office here left their instruments in a body about 5 o'clock this afternoon, Telegraphing is, therefore, comparatively at a stand-still, only three or four of the employes of the Company, not members of the Lesque, remaining to do the work. The general public is seriously interested in this matter, and hope for a speedy termination of the trouble.

Fittlanghreia, Jan. 4.—The Western Eulon Telegraph operators ceased work here at 4 p. m. There will be little or no delay in the business.

ceased such here at 4 p. m. There will be little or no deary in the outcomes.

CINCINNATI, Onto, Jan. 4.—There is no particular change in the telegraph operators' strike. The operators held a meeting this morning. The officers of the telegraph company have confidence in their ability to maintain their position, and continue to attend to all business.

NAN PHANCINCO, JAN. 4.—The statement that there is a general strike here of Western Union Telegraph operators in consequence of an alleged attempted, or contemplated. Two operators have here dismissed because their services were no longer required; but no offer of reduced compensation had been made to them. These dismissed employés appear to have marepresented the case at the Rask, with a view to revenging their discharge. Their former associates here do not sympathic with them nor join their movement, and business is going forward promptly as usual.

NEW RAILROADS.

THE MIDLAND ROAD. The Midland Railroad is completed from Oswego to Norwich, a distance of 994 miles. From a point about six miles south of Norwich, and thence eighteen miles west to Sidney Plains, the connecting station on the Albany and Susquehanna Railroad, the grading is completed and it only remains to finish some ballasting to put the track in perfect running order. Trains will probably make regular trips from Oswego to Sidney Plains, a distance of 124 miles, about the 15th inst. The telegraph line, which is the property of the railroad company, was formally opened for public business on New Year's day. At Lyons Brook, near Norwich, there is a substantial wrought-fron truss bridge 800 feet in length. The centre is supported by a heavy stone pier. From the bed of the rivalet, in the gerge below, to the track level at the centre of this bridge, the height 155 feet. The structure is one of the most graceful lid and perfect in the State, and can support any re to the track level at the centre of this bridge, the height is 155 feet. The structure is one of the most graceful, solid and perfect in the State, and can support any required weight.

The first trial of its strength was made on Thursday last, and was the occasion for the gathering of a large concourse of people from the surrounding country. Probably not less than 3,000 persons were present. A train, consisting of a heavy locomotive, ten platform and two passenger cars, having on board a number of people, slowly moved to the centre of the bridge, and, pausing there a moment, the whistle of the iron horse awoke the ochoes of the wild and craggy ravine with shrill screams, while the passengers on board the train, and the spectators on either bank enthusiastically cheered. The train then started to the other side and returned with increased speed. The rolling stock employed on this route comprises sixteen new locometive engines, and a large number of cars.

Work advances rapidly on other portlons of the road. The main part of the southern end from Centreville, in Sullivan County, to the entrance of the funnel at Wartsboro, is graded and the ties supplied. The branch from Ellenville, in Ulster County, to the tunnel entrance—a distance of eight miles—is also graded and tied. Between Parkersville and Centreville, in Sullivan County, the work of filling, cutting, and grading, is energetically passed forward. At Liberty, Liberty Falls, and Young's Gap—the latter point is the aumuit of the grade west of the Shawangunk Mountains—there are also heavy cuts, grades, and fills. On the eastern side of these mountains the work is similar to that on the west side, and progresses finely. There is to be a high suspension wrought-iron tross bridge over the Shawangunk kill just at the mountain's base, also heavy cutting at Fair Oaks, which is about midway between Bloomingburgh and Middletown. From this point the route crosses that of the Eric Railway, and continues toward beckertown, N. J., and is boing graded. From thence to Pomp fore 1871.

When in full operation this road will develope the hitherto almost untouched resources of one of the most fertile agricultural districts of the State. Portions of Ulster, Sullivan, Onelda, Otsego, Madison, Chenango, and Delaware Counties will reap much benefit from the opening of this new line of direct communication to every point, and especially with this great metropolis. NYACK AND PIERMONT LINE.

NYACK AND PIERMONT LINE.

The laying of rails on this new road was commenced on Thursday. The grading has been in progress for some time past. There are no great difficulties either of excavating or filing. The distance between Nyack and Piermont is about five miles, most of which is unbroken by hills of any extent. Formerly communication with the metropolis was found solely in the line of the Hudson River steamers, then by lumbering stages to Piermont—the Eric station, or cight miles over a stony road to Spring Valley, on the line of the New-Jersey Northern Railroad, about 30 miles from New-York. This new route is expected to be in complete running order before Spring.

ning order before Spring. CUSTOM-HOUSE MATTERS.

The monthly report of the business at the Custom-House for December embraces the following items: Number of vessels arrived from foreign ports, and boarded by Revenue officers, all but one having cargo, was 351, viz.: One man-of-war, 59 steamships, 28 ships, 82 barks, 98 brigs, 71 schooners; other vessels, 12. The number of vessels from which cargo was fully dis-charged and return made thereof to the Custom-House, charged and return made thereof to the Custom-House, was 278, viz.; Steamsnips, 50; ships, 13; backs, 70; brigs, 75; schooners, 50; other vessels, 18. The steamsnips above reported, and seven sailing vessels, were returned as having brought passengers, of whom 809 were cabin, and 7,578 steerage, a decroase of hearly 4,000 from the arrivals in November. Forty-nips new or remodeled vessels, or vessels for the first time entered at this port, were measured for tunnage, as follows: Steamships, 8; ships, 3; barks, 22; brigs, 10; other vessels, 6.

The quantity of weighable merchandles imported, except coal and sait, as returned by the Government weighers, was 154,022,340 %; exports of weighable merchandles returned was 6,073,142 %; coal and sait imported, 604,364 %. The quantity of mercandise returned cept coal and sait, as returned by the Government weighers, was 154,022,540 h; exports of weighable merchandise returned was 6,073,142 h; coal and sait imported, 604,964 h. The quantity of mercandise returned during the month, as gauged, was 1,48,986 gallons, except wines and liquors in cases, viz.; Imports, 1,379,318 gallons; exports, 69,668 gallons. Of imports there were said, 131 gallons of molasses, and 544,167 gallons of wines, brandy, and other liquors in cases, and 22,212 baskets and case of wines, etc., confaining one dozen bottles each. In the Debenture office there were returned $67 entries for withdrawal and exportation of merchandise, chiefly for benefit of drawback, and 172 orders for examination of merchandises manufactured from merchandise, chiefly for benefit of drawback, and 172 orders for examination of merchandise manufactured from merchandise of foreign growth or production; also domestic manufactures entered for export under Internal Revenue laws for benefit of drawback.

The Detective Bureau reported 111 scizures of goods for violation of revenue haws, amounting to an appraised value of about $50,000, and most of the property soized has been held for public sale to pay the duties thereon. In addition to the merchandise imported as above specified, there were several thousand entries of various kinds of manufactured goods, from all which sources there was received during the month, in payment of duties, $6,500,245 &5, in gold.

Charles H. Knight and Wm. A. Stiles, U. S. Gaugers at this port, have returned from New-Orleans, where they were ordered by the Treasury Department two or three months ago to regauge all the gaugable merchandise in bend at that port and held by the Government for investigation under suspicion of fraud. After thorough and careful examination they were unable to discover that frauch had been practiced upon the revenue by false entries or fraudulent returns of the fluours held by the Government; but found a very imperfect system of gauging as compared with the mode prac

THE SISTERS OF THE STRANGER.

This excellent Association held its first meeting for the year yesterday afternoon, at Room No. 45, Bible House. Several applications for relief were re-ceived, some of them sad cases of indigence or of reverse of fortune. An English physician came to this country short time ago, sent on a mission by his brother, who is physician to the Duke of Devonshire. The brother promised to remit funds, but failed to do so, and letters promised to remit funds, but failed to do so, and tecess addressed to him remained unanswered. The brother in this country, who is accompanied by his wife and children, is in consequence in the greatest penury. He and his wife were present in the room for a brief time. Last night they had no bed but shavings, no bed clothes but what they wore. The case, said the Rev. Dr. Deems, was truly a deplorable one. Several ladies undertook to see after his case. Another applicant, a well educated lady, is a good shorthand reporter, amanuensis, copyist, or general writer. Communications for her may be addressed care of Mrs. Hayes, No. 235 Delancey-st. These are samples of cases brought forward. The following statement is from the monthly report submitted: Of persons aided during the month 20 per cent have come from England, 8 from from Ireland, 2 from Scotland, 2 from Wales, 4 from Ganada, 2 from Nova Scotla, 2 from Maine, 2 from Massachusetts, 2 from New-York, 12 from Pennsylvania, 2 from Ohio, 2 from Mississippi, and 2 from Louisiana; foreign cases relieved 44 per per cent, domestic 166 per cent. A musical entertainment in behalf of the charity will be given on the 20th inst. Some of the best professionals in the city have tendered their services gratis, and it will be altogether a recherche affair. The number of tickets will be limited to 150, that being all the place designated will accommodate. addressed to him remained unanswered. The brother in

THE ELIZABETH-ST. TRAGEDY.

INQUEST AT THE MORGUE. At an early hour yesterday people congregated in front of the entrances to Bellevue Hospital and the Morgue, and as the hours were on the numbers increased. The crowd was composed in good part of women and children, who clamored loudly for admittance. The occasion that called this crowd together was the announcement that an inquest would be held over the bodies of George Bauman and his vietim, Mrs. Annie Almejo. In the inquest room at the Morgue were gathered the jury, a considerable number of the relatives and friends of the deceased, the witnesses, and a group of spectators, attracted thither by the notoriety given to the tragedy and the circumstances attending it. A painful sensation was caused by the entrance of the mother of the dead woman. Leaning over the body of her daughter, she seemed completely overcome. Shortly after noon Coroner Flynn arrived, and the inrestigation was at once commenced.

Miss Josephine McNamara, a sister of the woman killed, esiding at No. 116 South Fourth-st., Brooklyn, E. D., testified: Deceased was my sister; she was engaged as a teacher in the German Turners' School in Mcserole-st. she taught there for three years past; I was acquainted with George Bauman, principal of the school; I knew nothing of their intimacy : I last saw my stater alive on Thursday last; the next I snew of her was from what I saw in the papers yesterday. [Witness added that the statement that her sister was expelled from the school was a mistake, but that one of the School Committee had told her that Bauman had been asked to resign.]
Pauline Beck of No. 69 Elizabeth-st, testified that she kept a house of assignation at that place; I never saw the face of the woman before Sauday night; she always came vailed; about nine mouths ago Bauman came to my ouse and said that he was a resident of Rochester, and asked if he could have a room at 3 p. m. the following day; he came, as appointed, alone, and remained in the parlor; about five minutes afterward a woman, closely parior, about five minutes afterward a woman, closely valled, came and rang the bell; he admitted her; they remained until 7; since then he has been there five or six times, and on each occasion he was followed by the woman whom he invariably admitted himself; on Sunday last he came at 5, and asked for a room; five minutes afterward the valled lady came and was admitted as usual; they went up to a room on the rear of the top floor; nothing more was heard until about 10 minutes past 6 while I was eating supper, when my servant called to me, "Mrs. Beck, they are shooting up stairs;" I ran up to the room and on the way heard two more shots; I then rapped at the door and called to the man in German to let me in; receiving no reply, I ran down stairs to the street and called Officer Minule, who was passing at the time; we went up stairs, and Officer Minule rapped for admittance; the door was opened by the woman who, when we entered, was sitting on the floor; the man lay on the floor near by; he had a pistol in his right hand; she said, "For God's sake, help me, I am dying!" she added "where is my man!" and soon became insensible; from the appearance of the woman I think she was the same person who always came with Bauman.

Dr. Wooster Beach testified that he had made a possi-morten examination of the bedies. The woman had re-ceived a pistol-shot wound in the left temple, and Bau-man in the right. A built was taken from the brain of each. The builets were small in size, and flattened in their passage through the skull. The jury, in the case of Mrs. Almeje, rendered a ver-dict "that she came to her death from a pistol-shot wound at the hands of George Bauman." In the case of Baumann, they rendered a verdict "that he came to his death from a pistol-shot wound inflicted with suicidal intent."

The body of the woman was given into the care of an undertaker, by whom it was taken to Cypress Hills Ceme-tery, followed by the relatives and a few friends. A short religious service was held, and the body was committed to the earth, beside a child of Mr. Almejo, which died nearly two years ago.

Nothing has yet been heard from the brothers of Bauman, and his body remains at the Morgue, subject to their disposition.

CARELESS USE OF FIREARMS.

Charles Leopold, John Lorch, and a number other Germans, members of the Society known as "The Sons of Liberty," had assembled in the lagar-beer saloon No. 76 Hudson-st., on New-Year's night. During the evening Lorch pulled from his pocket a seven-barreled revolver, which was wrapped in a handkerchief, and told Leopold he wanted to unload the revolver. Lorch went into the street and fired six of the barrels. Lorch went into the street and fired six of the barrels. The cap on the seventh tube failed to explode, although he several times snapped the trigger. Lorch returned to the saloon, amounced the result of the firing, and again snapped the weapon. It was discharged, and the ball entered the abdomen of Leopold, and passed beyond the reach of a probe. Leopold was taken to his residence, No. 12 Leonard-st, and attended by a surgeon, who pronounced him in a very critical condition. Coroner Schirmer, gesterday, took the auto-mortem statement of Leopold, which coincides with the above. Lorch seems to feet very keenly the result of his carelessness. FATAL RAILROAD CASUALTY-

Coroner Flynn held an inquest at the Morgue yesterday over the body of Patrick Brady, who was fatally injured on Sunday, by car No. 97 of the Eighth-ave. line. Thomas Henne, conductor of the car, testified that the night in question was very dark, the lamps on the upper part of the avenue being nearly all blown out by the gale. At One-hundred-and-second-st., the car was thrown from the track by passing over some obstruction, and on looking back the witness saw a man lying on the track.
He found that he had been run over, and at once had He found that he had been run over, and at once had the man conveyed to the nearest house, and then went to the Police Station, and gave information of the occurrence. The man could not not speak but appeared to be in great pain by his moans. His breath smeiled of liquor. Thomas Hickson, the driver, saw nothing on the track until the horses had passed over it, and he then attempted to brake up, but too late. A verdict of accidental death was rendered. Decased was a native of Ireland, aged 57 years, and resided at Eighth-ave, and Eighty-Brat-st.

SUICIDE OF A GERMAN WOMAN.

The place was the resort of the lowest and most abandoned characters of both sexes. Walters has served one doned characters of both sexes. Walters has served one term of four years in State Prison. Yesterday morning Mrs. Walters arose as usual, and commenced to cook the breakfast for her husband and two or three young men, temporarily stopping with them, in addition to the female inmates. She went down stairs, apparently with the intention of procuring some article of food. As she did not return, one of the young men, Charles Smith, went down to see what had become of her. He found Mrs. Walters hanging by the neck from a staple driven into the wall. She had used two handkerchiefs to form a rope, and with this had hung herself. Smith called the husban' of the woman, and she was at once cut down, and a physician summoned, but life was exthet. The Dublin Young Men's Association is, as The Dublin Young Men's Association is, as a name implies, a society of young men, natives, of the tity of Dublin, associated together for purposes of social argoyment, and also with a design of furnishing a bureau f information for citizens of Dublin who may desire to train information in reference to their friends in this try or yicinity. A book is kept at the rooms of the Assoorly or vicinity. A book is kept at the rooms of the Asso-ciation, in which are entered the names and addresses of all persons arriving from Dublin, of whom the Society are aware. The Association has its headquarters at No. 37 Stanton-st., where it holds regular meetings every Tuesday evening. Last evening the first annual election for permanent officers of the Association was held at the above place, and the following-named gentlemen were duly elected officers for the ensuing year: President, Mr. P. J. Keenan; Vice-President, Mr. John McDonnough; Pinanetal Secretary, Mr. John J. Rossiter; Recording Secretary, Mr. James Welr; Trensurer, Mr. John J. Tron-son; Sergeant-at-Arms, Mr. James Abcorn. The Boulevard Club, an association of the The Bonievard Club, an association of the nore prominent citizens resident at Bioomingdale and eighborhood, celebrated its first anniversary last highly a supper at the club-rooms, on the Bonievard at light undered and tenthst. The rooms were tastefully dorned with the stars and stripos and flags of foreign rations, with hoquets and basiets of the choicest flowers and with the seasonable evergreens worked into the monograms? B. C. and "M. T. B.," the mintal letters of the mame of the Club and of a favorite member. Each monograms." B. C." and "M. T. B.," the initial letters of the name of the Club and of a favorite member. Each member was permitted to invite one friend to the feast, no more, and each member availed himself of this privilege. At 8 the company assembled, and at $\frac{1}{2}$ marched into the manufactual manufactual member and friend arm-in-arm. It was assembled that no chapiain was present to say grace, and the President then said, as was said before on a memorable occasion, "the Lord be thanked." The wines and vinnds were then attended to, appetite increased apparently by the flow of melody that issued from an orchestra stationed in an ante-room. When the cloth was removed sentiment and speech were in order, and were given and responded to by the Hen. M. T. Brennan, Police Commissioner; Capt. William L. Wiley, Supervisor Elakely, Alderman D. S. Jackson, Mr. James T. King, Mr. Eugene J. McEnrof, and others. The officers of the Association, who also participated in the song and sentiment and speech, are; Harrison H. Ferguson, President; John J. Maioney, Secretary; H. W. Ostendorf, Treasurer, and John W. Garside, Wiskinsky. The pleasurers of the night were continued until a late hour, and all retired satisfied with the success of the first anniversary meeting of the Boulevard Club.

THE ALBANY AND SUSQUEHANNA CASE ONCE MORE.

A CARD FROM JAMES FISK, JR. the Edstor of The Tribune.

Sin: If you had contented yourself with ablishing Judge Smith's opinion in the Susquehanna allroad case, I should not have troubled you, as I think it is best to leave judicial opinions to the Courts, which are the competent and most proper organs to approve or condemn them. But you have chosen to accompany the opinion with comments injurious to me, and I therefore beg you to allow me the favor of a small place in your columns. Many things most worthy of notice appear to be decided by that opinion, if it is to stand; but it is not necessary now to mention more than the

First: That when a railroad company has once for cited stock for non-payment of assessments, it may sell that stock to any purchaser, for any price; so that although the law requires stock of railroad companies to

although the law requires stock of railroad companies to be paid in full, that provision may be always evaded by taking at first 10 per cent, and then forfelting and selling for 25 per cent, declaring it full-paid stock, equal in effect to stock upon which 100 per cent has been paid.

Second: That if the President of a railroad company, two days before closing the books preliminary to an election, invites his friends to his house at night and there takes their subscriptions to additional stock, sufficient to carry the election, promising them that they need pay nothing, but he would pay for them, and he pays ten per cent from money borrowed on his private account upon callaterals belonging to the company, oncealing both the subscription and the payment from as fellow directors and all stockholders but his own party, secreting for the purpose the books of the company, the transaction nevertheless is a lawful one, and the stock good stock to be voted upon at the election.

Third: That a concert of action by other stockholders to prevent by legal process, and the election of new inspectors the above mentioned two chases off stock being voted upon, is a "preconcerted scheme, combination or conspiracy to carry the election."

Foorth: That expirite injunctions or orders suspending or chloning a president, director, or other officers of a corporation, from the ordinary duties of his office, are absolutely void; such orders as you praised Judge Marrey for granting, and abused Judge Balcom for setting assice, Vour obseldent servant,

THE ROGUS DAUGHTER OF A RISHOU

THE EOGUS DAUGHTER OF A BISHOP.

The case of Florence W. Kelly, charged with ewindling clergymen and others, by representing herself to be a child of the Bishop of Newfoundland, is evidently a singular one. Since she has been locked up in Poughkeepsie about a week ago she has eaten only two crackers, and is now quite iil. She complains of distress about the heart, and says that when arrested something came up in her chest and remains there. She speaks in a whisper, in her chest and remains there. She speaks in a whisper, and is to all appearances suffering greatly. The jail physician has been unable to get her to take medicine. She has on a comfortable bed in her cell, with her eyes closed, breathing heavily. She has been visited at intervals by a Mr. and Mrs. Stevens and the Rev. Mr. Cady. It is supposed that the last named is conducting her correspondence. She has been assigned counsel in the persons of ex. Judge Wheaton and Daniel W. Guernsey. Esq. Information has been received from all parts of the country from persons swindled by both the woman and her male companion, who escaped arrest.

SAVETY BOILER.

"To prevent the public heigh guided by the advertisements" of the literison Boiler Works, we would request them to read our advertisements of Jan. I and 3 in the Unity Tribune and Thom, and the statements of the three Jadges of Boilers at the late Leutinate Pair therein contained. As we then stated that the managers (though liberally and mujusty) had awarded the first premium to Harrison's Cast from Soiler, we have no difference on that point. It is, however, the province of the judges alone to decide as to premiums.

When it is considered that the great merit claimed for the Harrison Boiler, is the superiority of cast iron (a brittle and surrelishle meris) over wrought iron (a tough and reliable one), for the heating surfaces of builers, that Mr. Harrison's large unleance and facilities have cannied him to sell such cast iron boilers, and to convince many of the superiority of cast iron over wrought in defance of all past experience and natural laws, it does not seem strange that the same weight and influence should enable him to set saide the laws of the Institute, reverse and analysis has decisions of its judges, and came its managers to "statisfy themselved" by ignoring the laws that give them any authority whatever, As to the charges that they bring against the Root Boiler at the Pair, it is anticient to say that it was creeded in great haste, negle forward by its amount of the superior pumpers and machinery during the first few weeks of the Pair, while Marrison's Boiler was being erected in the best possible manner, without regard to time or money.

No road has ever been built having more moner-

This road has been consolidated with the indianapolis, Crawfordsville and Danville Road, makings over 200 miles under one management, and fornishing still further security to the bondholder, these Bonds having been assumed by the consordated Company, called the Indianapolis, Bloomington and Western Railroad. It connects on the east with direct lines to Boston, New-York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, and with Peoris, Burlington, and Outdon on the west-the only East and West line connecting the cities of Indianapoles, Danville, Urbana, illoom-ington, Pekin, and Peoria. The high premium the stock of many of the railways in Illinois command with no better prospects than this road, justifies the belief that its stock will also soon be at a premium, thus making the convertible clause a valuable option. To make the bonds still more secure a Sinking Fund has been provided. The belief that the Government will fund the Pive-Twenties into a 4} per cent loan makes it desirable for investors to look for some safe securities that pay a good interest, about which there is no question, for which they can exchange their 5-30s-capitalizing the premium, and getting a higher rate of interest for a long term of years. Nothing can be more desirable than First Mortgage Bonds on any first-class completed railway.

The Coal Freights alone are estimated sufficient to pay the Interest on the Bonds, the best Mines in tho State being located on the line at Danville.

Having carefully examined the Road from time to time and its connections, we being also familiar with the wealth and resources for the country along the line, as well as with the rapid progress of the Company from the start, its Financial Standing and efflcient management, we recommend the Bonds as a choice Investment, the Security of which has been placed beyond any contingency, as the Company have been provided with the necessary funds to complete the Road.

About four-fifths of the loan has been taken by ctual investors. We continue to offer a portion of the balance at 35
